Lewis and Clark Golf Trail

Lewis and Clark never played golf when they were here in 1804-1806, but if they came back today, they would try the sport. The Lewis and Clark Trail in North Dakota gives you the opportunity to do something they never could—explore the 200-plus golf holes that lie along the trail blazed by Lewis and Clark, Sakakawea and the intrepid band of explorers who helped open the Louisiana Purchase. With more than 20 courses next to almost 30 Lewis and Clark attractions, you can't go wrong on this trail! For more information, contact the Bismarck-Mandan Visitor Center at 1600 Burnt Boat Drive in Bismarck or call (701) 222-4308.
